

Faculty Club 2017

University Guesthouse, Friday, 12:00-1:30pm

Objectives

- Regular meeting point for professors; getting to know each other and networking
- Opportunity to meet the management of the University; mutual exchange between university boards and faculty members
- Discussion and exchange on the research profile of RWTH Aachen University
- ThinkTank: input from and exchange with external top-class researchers
- Networking opportunities for 'advanced talents'; exploiting the potential of creative, bustling talents for the research profile of the University

Programme

February 17	Richard Boyatzis, Case Western University, Cleveland, Ohio/USA Emotional Intelligence as a Path to Effective Leadership
April 28	Ernst Schmachtenberg, RWTH Aachen Conversation with the Rector
July 7	Stefan Pischinger, RWTH Aachen University Der Spagat zwischen Grundlagenforschung und Innovation
October 27	Christine Roll, RWTH Aachen University Mythos Thesenanschlag - Wie die Geschichtswissenschaft mit einer folgenreichen Erfindung umgeht
November 17	Christoph Stampfer, RWTH Aachen Graphene and Related Two-Dimensional Materials
December 8	Heinz Pitsch, RWTH Aachen University Moderne Verbrennungsvorgänge (tba)

Registration

All professors of RWTH Aachen University, the junior professors, selected outstanding young scientists and the retired professors are members of the Faculty Club.

To take part in Faculty Club events, a first general registration is necessary, thereby expressing to the Rector your willingness to attend Faculty Club meetings as regularly as possible. Registered members may then register for individual meetings, either via online form or mail to facultyclub@ers.rwth-aachen.de.

A contribution to expenses for lunch snack and beverages is kindly requested (15 € cash on site).

Links for registration and further information are available at www.rwth-aachen.de/facultyclub