Communicate Your Science.

October 27th, 2022 | 1 pm - 6 pm | online via Zoom
www.rwth-aachen.de/YAD
Prof. Ulrich Rüdiger, rector of RWTH Aachen University, will present career opportunities for scientists based on his career and looks forward to a lively exchange with you. Afterwards, you will hear a keynote on "Science Communication". Furthermore, you will get to know various services and support facilities and meet contact persons for young researchers in a digital marketplace. Finally, you will have the opportunity to network and share experiences at virtual topic tables on relevant issues such as career paths in and outside of academia, research stays abroad or start-up foundations.
